

696 5th Jant.

To the fifth he saith that he went to the head of Lawrence's Creek in company with of Henry Spink Senior who then told him that at the head of the said Creek stood the bounden tree of St Joseph's Manor by the Road side.

6th Jant.

To the sixth Interrogatory he saith that the said Henry Spink told him that the said Road did run from the head of the said Lawrence's Creek to the head of Bark River and that the said Road was called Potowent path and no other path for called that over the head of.

7th Jant.

To the seventh he saith not.

8th Jant.

To the eighth he saith that he very well knows St Nicholas by Creek and that it issues out of Bark River to the Norward of Harvery Town.

Mr Thomas Sprigg aged Sixty four years or thereabouts being sworn and examined saith.

1st Jant.

To the first Interrogatory he saith that he did not know St Nicholas Harvery but the land he lived on called St Joseph's Manor he know very well & having lived in Potowent River thirty eight years and upward.

2nd Jant.

To the second he saith not.

3rd Jant.

To the third he saith not.

4th Jant.

To the fourth he saith that he has known the now Road of Potowent forty years and called by the name of Perkins's path which path went towards St Mary's to a tree called the Horn Tree and that Governor Stone told him that he gave the Indian King of Potowent two Matheoats to clear and mark the said path from St Mary's to Mr Perkins's and that it is about forty four years ago since it was cleared.

5th Jant.

To the fifth he saith not.

6th Jant.

To the sixth he saith not.

7th Jant.

To the seventh he saith not.

8th Jant.

To the eighth he saith he knows St Nicholas by Creek and that it issues out of Bark River and runs up nearly West.

In testimony of all what is declared before us we have set our hands and Seals.

Record 15th Jan<sup>y</sup> 1694

Thomas Tabor

John Bigger

Francis Freeman

Samuel Winstanley