

To His Excellency the Gov: and Council -

By Verbe of A Certain Act of Assembly for ascertaining the Bounds of A piece of Land of A piece of Land that Cap: Rich: Add God to the use of Christ Church in Christ Church Bish as by his Last will may fully and at large appears in presence of the M^{rs} and a Jury of the neighbours being Impannelled and Sworn was formed in presence of as many of the Jurors as would attend the same by appointment met at the house of M^r John Dorman on the Fifth or y^e twenty Seventh day of may going to a place called the Steps A Jury of the neighbours being Impannelled was all the said place called the Steps duly Sworn being twelve in Number Also Evidence being Sworn to prove the place called the Steps y^e whole Jury agreeing that y^e place was sufficiently proved ordered a Locust tree to be bounded which was there accordingly done with twelve notches night coming on Adjourned till next morning when appeared parts of the Jury and rainy weather adjourned till Saturday June the first when with againe Election of the Jurors which was at first Sworn and found the Steps night coming on againe before could finish adjourned againe till Saturday the 3th of June At all which severall days and times the Jury hath been done and finished as followeth Beginning with a Old bound Locust post firmly sett up for the Suthermost bound of the Land called Char Es Giff which Post was fallen downe and now sett up againe in the same place and running thence North forty five degrees westerly Eighty eight pole then north forty two degrees West forty eight pole up the Bay to a bounded Locust standing at the Steps thence west into the woods four hundred Twenty six pole to a bounded white Oaks standing nere to St. Bonards Becks thence downe and with the said Creek South Sixteen degrees west forty five poles till it intersects the Land of M^r Gambell thence with the line of the said Land East two hundred Sixty and six pole to a bound red oak by a small branch the end is the North East Corner here of M^r Gambells Land thence South Sixty pole to a small white Oaks standing on the Side of an Hill and is the South East Corner here of the said Gambells Land thence East to the first Beginning Locust posts on the Bank Side by the Bay containing two hundred thirty nine Acres June 4th 8th 1700

John Leach Juror