

of the lard of usgraves of the Ship John Hoopwell whereof Henry Monday is Comand or any other matter or thing belonging to the lard and upon recovery and receipt to make and pass due and sufficient acquitance and Discharge and if need be for the Consistants to appear and their Pleas to set out in all Courts and before all Lord Judges and Justices of Law in any place whatsoever Consistants and in any Court in any Concerning the Pleas to be by any means and among whatsover the Consistants when before Court Do if they shall please they hereby promise to hold and ratify for and whatsoever their Attorneys or either of them their or either of their Consistants shall do in the Pleas by virtue hereof this Bond and paper in London the day and year of

Signed with our own Hands of us being first Truly Stamp'd
 Jos. [unclear]

Henry Smith Seal
 In Monday Seal
 Do Thomas Seal

Com. In Testimonium Veritatis Jo. [unclear] not. p. no. 1209

Notably appears before me Jo. [unclear] and was legally attested that the Law Henry Smith In Monday and Do Thomas signed Seal and Follow the above instrument in their act and Deed and that the said [unclear] had thereto an witness in plain English y. 23. m. aug. 1701

Do [unclear] 16