

Edward and Edmund and Mary the wife of the said Edmund or by any person or persons whatsoever claiming by force or in default them or any of them in any way and they the said Edward and Edmund with their heirs and Mary the wife of the said Edmund do for them and their heirs covenant promise grant and agree to and with the said Edward Reynolds and his heirs that they the said Edward Edmund and Mary the wife of the said Edmund their heirs and assigns and every of them shall and will from time to time at all times hereafter do make acknowledgment suffer and grant and cause to be made done acknowledged suffer and granted all and every further and other act and deed thing and thing assurances and conveyances as either Edward Reynolds his heirs and assigns or his or their Council should in the Law from time to time reasonably be required for the further and better pursuing surely and performing of all and singular the conditions hereby bargained and sold and to be hereafter bargained and sold and Lestly they the said Edward and Edmund and Mary the wife of the said Edmund do for them and their heirs covenant
to and with the said Edward Reynolds and