

Deed or Deeds fine or fines or other assurances in the law whatsoever for the further surely assurance & firm making all & singular the above bargain & sold the parts of Land & tenements to the said perrot his heirs & assigns for ever as the same are in the law of the said perrot his heirs or assigns shall reasonably advise or devise at the proper costs & charges of the said perrot his heirs & assigns And the said Richard Clerk & Colledge Clerk for him his heirs & assigns to & with the said perrot that he the said Richard Clerk shall & will from time to time see over hereafter warrant & defend the above bargain & sold or to be intended & minded to be bargain & sold Richard of Land & tenements with their & every of their parts unto the said perrot his heirs & assigns for ever, against him the said Richard Clerk his heirs & assigns for ever & against all other persons whatsoever provided always and it is the true intent purpose & meaning of these presents, & so declared by the parties to the same, that if the said Richard Clerk his heirs & assigns shall & will at a before the expiration of the term of eight years to be fully completed from the date of these presents pay or cause to be paid unto the said perrot his heirs & assigns of the sum of eight hundred & forty pounds the said in manner & form following that is to say the sum of one hundred & forty pounds at or upon every twenty fifth day of December during the said eight years with the yearly interest of the said eight hundred & forty pounds at the rate of six pence per cent yearly the first paym^t to begin and be made on the twenty fifth day of December next & so to continue without Intervale

Intervale