

and Mirick Abington of London Purifier — the next Heir of the said John Abington Defunct It was (inter alia) ordered and decreed that the said John Abington's plantations and Lands in America and all his Stock there should be sold to the best purchaser that could be gotten for the same to be allowed by Mr. & Kees one of the Masters of the said Court and that the said Mirick Abington should joyne in the said Sale or Lease his title thereto and Interest therein to such purchaser. And Whereas the said John Hyde by an order of the said Court bearing date the Six and Twentieth day of June which was in the said year one thousand Seven hundred and two aforesaid been allowed and is confirmed to be the purchaser of the said plantation. And Whereas pursuant to the said Decree and in obedience thereto the said plantation and all and singular the premises herein after mentioned are by a good and sufficient conveyance and assurance in the Law settled and conveyed unto and upon and vested in the said Mr. Hyde his heirs and assigns as by the recited Decree enrolled in the said High Court of Chancery and the severall measures conveyances and assurances before