

On the back of the foregoing deed was this endorsement

April the 16th 1712

Then came Walter Kelly before me and of her Majesty's Justice of the peace Court and did acknowledge the within Land & premises therein contained to be the right of the within named Charles Hammond his heirs and assigns forever In Testimony whereof I have subscribed my name the day & year above written July the 16th 1712

John Young

Then read a donation for the within Land of Major Charles Hammond and his heirs forever

John Carroll

Enrolled July 24th 1712 1712

[Large decorative flourish]

Dorchester County

June 23rd 1707

[Large decorative flourish]
M All it please your excellency and his Majesty's Honourable Council These are to certify that pursuant to an Ordinance of Assembly made and ordered the 15th and 16th day of May A.D. 1707 I have carefully surveyed and laid out the land formerly by Law given to the Proprietor's Judicials Abasco Seguowagon and Hardswang and the Judicials under their government and Charge according to the words and bounds in the Law granted Viz. Beginning at the mouth of Secretary's Creek and running up the said Creek South 42nd East four hundred and eighty perches to a marked white Oak standing at the head of the said Creek and from the said Oak running South 60th hundred and ten perches to another marked oak standing in the woods by the side of a road that leads from Edward Newton to Major Thomas Taylor from the last specified Oak running west Thirty eight deg South one thousand seven hundred and forty perches to another marked white Oak standing by the Road ~~at the~~ from Garmouth Town to the Town of Cambridge and from the said Oak running west 20th North one thousand seventy five perches to another bounded white Oak standing in a swamp and from the last mentioned Oak running north one hundred and sixty perches to another ~~at the~~ standing by Great (Proprietor's River)

and 20th