

Creek a little above the wading place of the said Creek thence down the said Creek and bounded therewith. Viz North by three degrees West fifty pole thence north seventy eight degrees west twenty eight pole thence south forty two degrees west fifty pole thence west ninety pole thence north fifty two degrees west one hundred and forty pole, thence south west fifty four Pole to the mouth of Creek called Little Creek thence up the said Little Creek bounded therewith Viz South East and by South twenty Pole, thence South by one degree East seventy six pole, thence South thirty six degrees East twenty four pole, thence South and by west, one hundred and ten pole, thence South East and by South fifty eight pole, thence South and by west forty Pole thence South fifty degrees East fifty four Pole, thence South Eighteen degrees East one hundred and fifty six pole, thence South sixteen degrees west, sixty pole thence South ~~thirteen degrees West~~ by East six ten pole, thence South twenty nine degrees west forty pole to a white oak standing at the head of the said Little Creek thence South East one hundred and two poles to a marked white oak thence with a Right Line to the first boundary containing and laid out for five hundred acres

And we do farther Certifie that a Jury of substantial freeholders of Somerset County being by the Sheriff of the said County summoned returned, and sworn before us truly to enquire after and return what Damages and Reimburse in tobacco they shall think fitt to be awarded to the owners of the three thousand acres of Land laid out for the Nanticoke Indians Broad Creek, and all other interested therein. The said Jury did make their return in the following words Viz:

That whereas pursuant to an Act of Assembly of this province of Maryland made at a Session of Assembly at Annapolis begun and continued the twenty third day of October Anno Domini 1711 entitled an Act to give power Commissioners to appoint a Cause to be laid out three thousand acres of Land on Broad Creek in Somerset County for the use of the Nanticoke Indians so long as they shall occupy the same

We the subscribers being summoned for Jurors, and sworn on the Holy Evangelists to enquire and return what damages and reimburse we shall think fitt to be awarded to the owners of the Land now laid out for the use of the Nanticoke Indians we have this day to wit the thirteenth day of December in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and eleven enquired therein of and concerning the severall and respective persons interested, as far as to the best of our knowledge we could, do upon our Oathes Judge and award unto the (True)