

At a special session 1669, an act passed directing that all that land lying and being on the South side of Choptank River bounded westerly by the freehold in the tenure and occupation of Mr. and Dorrington, and easterly with the creek falling into the said River of Choptank commonly by the English called known by the name of Secretary Swalls creek for width, and from the said River side three miles into the woods for length, should be unto Abasco Natshaw and Tequasimo and the people under their Government or charge and their heirs for ever.

This Law recorded in Liber W & L L. folio 34. in the General Court office for the Western Shore.

~~On the 13th of June 1701~~

On the 13 Jun 1701 a survey was made of the above land by Thomas Swalls said by him in his return to be "pursuant to an ordinance of assembly made and altered the 15th & 16th day of May Anno Domini 1701 & by the said survey the said Land is said to begin to the return.

This survey recorded in Liber J. P. No. 4 folio 109 of the land records of the Genl. Ct. for the W. Shore

By the act of 1721 c. 12. The Governor was directed to appoint commissioners to resurvey the Indians lands & ascertain the Bounds thereof. This act did not direct where the surveys were to be recorded.

Recorded in Liber L. L. No. 4 folio 531 one of Law record Books of the Genl. Court.

On the second day of June next performed the same as above