

in the port of London, upon which bonds there is due from him unto her said maj^{ty} the sum of twenty thousand pounds and upwards; It is found upon the oaths of twelve men of the said County of Middlesex that the said Thomas Coult was when possessed of his own property of seven hundred hoggsheads of tobacco the produce of three cargoes of goods of the said Thomas Coult Comings from England to the port of London, deceased which said seven hundred hoggsheads of tobacco do now remaine in the hands of the said George Braxton and John Bayler and are worth the said one thousand seven hundred pounds of lawfull money of Great Brittain; And it is further found by the said Inquisition that the said Wm. Trent of Philadelphia in parts beyond the Seas merchant is indebted to the said Thomas Coult in two thousand pounds for so much money had and receivd by the said Wm. Trent for 700 of the said Thomas Coult, and that the said John French of New Castle in Pennsylvania in parts beyond the Seas merchant is indebted to the said Thomas Coult in two thousand pounds for so much money had and receivd by the said John French for 700 of the said Thomas Coult; And it is further found by the said Inquisition that the said Thomas Coult was possessed of one thousand seven hundred two hundred hoggsheads of tobacco of five cargoes of goods sent from England in a Ship welcome Supply for in some other Vessel or Vessels Coming to the said Wm. Trent and Patrick Andrews, and other persons merchant in Maryland in the Bay and Sea, which said one thousand two hundred hoggsheads of tobacco do now remaine in England of Patrick Andrews of Patuxen in Maryland Merchant and are worth to be sold the sum of three thousand pounds of lawfull money of Great Brittain; And it is further found by the said Inquisition that the said Thomas Coult in his own right was possessed of the Ship or Vessel called the Welcome Supply Bernard Townsend master of the burden of Tons or thereabouts with her tackle and appurtenances said Vessel remaine in the custody of the said Bernard Townsend and is worth to be sold the sum of one thousand pounds of lawfull money of Great Brittain All which said tobacco Very