

391 and with such proviso, that if in Case the Thomas Browne or his Assignes shall at or upon the Twenty fifth day of Decemb^r which shall be in the Year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and fourteen pay or cause to be paid to the said Amos Garrett his heirs ^{Ex. Adm^r} or Assignes the Summe of Eighty pounds Sterlⁿ money of Great Brittain by good Bills of Exchange four to the Sett and to the Sighting of the said Amos Garrett drawn at Posts Light on Some Reasonable Merchant in London in great Brittain and the said Bills of Exchange be there duly accepted and paid to the said Amos Garrett or Order being one half of the Consideration money above mentioned as also, shall at or upon the twenty fifth day of Decemb^r which shall be in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and Fifteen pay or cause to be paid unto the said Amos Garrett his heirs ^{Ex. Adm^r} or Assignes the other half or remaining moiety of the Consideration Money being the Like Summe of Eighty pounds Sterlⁿ money of Great Brittain by good bills of Exchange four to the Sett and to the Sighting of the said Amos Garrett drawn at Posts Light on Some Reasonable Merchant in London in Great Brittain and the said bills of Exchange be there duly accepted and paid to the said Amos Garrett or Ord^r. Also Farther Covenant promise Grant and Agreed to and with the said Amos Garrett and his heirs that in Case the said Amos Garrett from the date of said Deed untill the Twenty fifth day of Decemb^r: one thousand seven hundred and fifteen advance any more money to the said Thomas Brown and Catherine his wife or to either of them or give them or either of them Credit in his Store or otherwise for any Summe or Summes of money Quantity or Quantities of Tobaccos that none of the said lands Tenements & hereditaments shall be redemptible till such Summe or Summes Quantities of Tobaccos be duly with Legall Interest paid by virtue of said Condition or Proviso. the said Thomas Browne had dealt and was trusted by the said Amos Garrett ^{and} sundry the said Thomas Notes drawn on the said Amos payable to sundry persons and said Amos sold and Delivered the said ~~Thomas~~ sundry goods and Merchandizes untill the thirteenth day of Aprile one thousand seven hundred & fifteen as by the said Account thereof ^{and} proved by the said Amos Garrett before one of his Majesties Justices ^{provs} of the said John Brown present and being before the date of this deed was Delivered to the said Thomas Browne party to this Deed whereby remained due from the said Thomas