

ought to be tryed by a Jury of the Vicinage of the Place where his offence was committed, your humble Suppliant conceiving the said Commission to be so Extensive as that it reacheth all the adjacent Governments (and Maryland Inclusive) doth humbly offer that his tryall was not according to the Laws and Customs of England no part of the Jury that went upon him being of the Vicinage vizt not of the County of Calvert in Maryland where the said was committed and your Suppliant conceiving that a Jury or part of the Jury might have been Summoned in Calvert County or any part of Maryland by the force of the said Commission, and he also in all humbly offers that by the 24th Act of Assembly in 1662 concerning the tryalls of Criminal Causes vizt of the County where the said committed ought to be summoned upon the Venire so that he supposeth the s^d Com^{rs} of Oyer and Terminer hath not been well and suffly perused in the late tryalls and proceedings of him and your Suppliant doth further humbly offer that in y^e Judgment of there is no Specification of the River Creek Town parish or hundred way not of the County nor Vicinage where the said said was committed whereas the Laws and Customs of England do require (in all Judicem^{ts} a particular relation of the very place w^{ch} the parish hundred and County where it lyeth to the End that the prisoner at the Barr may not suffer any prejudice though want of Certainty whereunto he might p^{le}ade,

And your honorable Suppliant doth further Submissively Offer that the said ^Wst or game of Affron for his tryall did not amount to the Number of twenty four persons whereas he humbly conceives that (by the English Laws and Customs) that Number was required to make a (perfect)