

Right Honble the Lord Proprietor of this Province and the said Kings of Powhatan and Appalogue upon Articles - hereafter in this treaty to be agreed upon to the world end to endure, and all former Acts of Hostility and Damages whatsoever shalld be buried in perpetuall Oblivion

2<sup>dly</sup> That if any Indian Subject to the said Kings shall hereafter kill an English man, the said Kings shall be obliged to deliver such Indian up to the Governour of this Province as a prisoner

3<sup>dly</sup> Inasmuch as the English cannot easily distinguish one Indian from another, that no Indian shall come into any English plantation painted, and that all the Indians shall be bound to call aloud before they come within three hundred paces of any English Mans clear ground and lay down their Arms, whether guns, Bowes and Arrows or other Weapons for any English man that shall appear upon their call to take up and in case that no one appears, that they shall there leave their <sup>said</sup> Arms if they come nearer, and that afterward they shall by calling aloud endeavour to give Notice to the English of their nearer approach, and if any English man shall kill any Indian that shall come unpainted and give Notice and deliver up his Arms as aforesaid he shall
