

Station and on or near the Division Line of Ann Arundell &
 Baltimore Counties Beginning at three Bounded white Oaks Standing on the East Side the Middle River of Potomac and running from the said Cross South East forty eight perches then South Twenty three perches then South East fifty two perches then East and by South fifty eight perches then South East and by East thirty two perches then East North East thirty perches then North North East seventy eight perches then North West and by North Two hundred and forty perches then with a straight Line to the beginning Cross Containing and laid Out for Two hundred Acres of Land more or less Together with all and singular the Houses Offices Buildings pastures Orchards four fields Fences Trees Woods Waters Connuencies and Appurtenances thereunto belonging or in Any way Appertaining or with the same held used Occupied or Enjoyed or Acquired Reputed or Taken as part parcel or Member thereof And the Provision & Provisions Remainder and Remainders Rent Issues and profits thereof
 And also all the Estate Rights Titles Interests and possession Claim and Demand whatsoever of him the said Henry Ridgely or in and to the said Land and premises hereby granted or Intended to be hereby granted to him the said Thomas Worthington his Heirs and Assigns for ever To have and to hold All the said Tracts or parcels of Land called Ridgely's Neck Containing Two hundred Acres of Land so the premises Appurtenances thereunto belonging unto him the said Thomas Worthington his Heirs and Assigns for ever To the sole proper use and behoof of him the said Thomas Worthington his Heirs and Assigns for ever And to none Other use Intent or purpose whatsoever And the said Henry Ridgely