In. That on the first of the day of July Anno Domini 1722 came before me one of his Lordships Justices of the provincial Court of Maryland the within named Charles Cagott and acknowledged the within written Instrument to be his and his heirs and the Land and promises therein mentioned to be bargained to be the right of the within named George Cagott his heirs & assigns According to the true intent & meaning of the same instrument And at the same time Maudlin Cagott wife of the a^d. Charles Cagott being by me severally examined but of her husband hearing did acknowledge that she of her own voluntary will & Consent and without any apprehension of her husband's displeasure gives up all her right Title and Power of in and unto the a^d. Bargained Land & promises with the appurtenances according to the true intent of the a^d. instrument In Testimony whereof I have hereunto set my hand the Day and year first above written

Recorded July 18th 1723
