

to that effect, it [shall not be] IS NOT necessary to mail a notice to the address of the voter, and his registration may be [forthwith] cancelled, as hereinafter provided, by removing the registration cards or forms of the voter from the original and duplicate files and placing the same in a transfer file.

(a) A registered voter offering to vote at any election, before being permitted to vote, shall identify himself by signing a voting authority card and giving any change of address OR NAME in the presence of the judges which shall be entered on the voting authority card or on a change of address OR NAME form by the voter. Unless an electronically reproduced precinct register is used, the judge in charge of the precinct register shall compare the signature upon that card with the signature upon the registration card[; if the same], AND IF THEY are not identical, the applicant may not be permitted to vote unless the majority of judges are of the opinion that he is the same person whose name appears upon the registration card. If the entry "Cannot sign" appears upon the registration card, or if an electronically produced precinct register is used, then the applicant shall state his age, which shall be compared with the age stated upon the registration card or the listed voter registration information, as the case may be[; or], OR the applicant shall identify himself by such other means as are referred to upon the registration card or listed information. If, upon comparison of the signature or other identification, it is found that the applicant is entitled to vote, then the judge having charge of the precinct register shall approve the voting authority card and write his initials thereon. The number of voting authority cards furnished to the judges shall exceed by ten [per centum] PERCENT the number of registered voters in the precinct. Each voting authority card shall be numbered and dated, and they shall be handed to the applicants in numerical order, as these applicants appear and offer to vote.

[No one] A PERSON who is not registered as a qualified voter of the precinct [shall be entitled to vote or to] MAY NOT VOTE OR receive a ballot[; but no vote shall be], BUT A VOTE MAY NOT BE rejected because of an error in the [spelling of the] voter's name or because of the wrongful omission or addition of one or more initials of his middle name or names, or because the voter gives the initials[, ] OF one or more of his [Christian or] given name or names, instead of his full name, or one or more of his [Christian or] given name or names, instead of the initial or initials thereof, or because of an error in the number of his residence on the register, provided a majority of the judges are satisfied that the person offering to vote is the identical person
