

9-405.

(1) A financing statement may disclose an assignment of a security interest in the collateral described in the statement by indication in the statement of the name and address of the assignee or by an assignment itself or a copy thereof on the face or back of the statement. Either the original secured party or the assignee may sign this statement as the secured party. On presentation to the filing officer of such a financing statement the filing officer shall mark, receipt for, index, record and deliver or mail the same as provided in § 9-403(4). The uniform fee for the filing, indexing, furnishing a receipt for such filing and recording with respect to such a financing statement shall be the amount [specified in § 7-202(b)(10)] DETERMINED UNDER § 7-202 of the Courts Article [of the Code, as same may be amended from time to time].

(2) A secured party may assign of record all or a part of his rights under a financing statement by the filing of a separate written statement of assignment signed by the secured party of record and setting forth the name of the secured party of record and the debtor, the identifying file number, the record reference and the date of filing of the financing statement and the name and address of the assignee and containing a description of the collateral assigned. A copy of the assignment is sufficient as a separate statement if it complies with the preceding sentence. On presentation to the filing officer of such a separate statement of assignment, he shall mark it with an identifying file number and with the date and hour of filing and give a receipt therefor and shall record same in either the financing records or the land records, as the case may be, where the original financing or continuation statement is recorded. In addition he shall note the statement of assignment and its record reference on the index of the financing or continuation statement being assigned. After recording such assignment the original shall be delivered or mailed to the assignee or his agent whose name and address for purposes of delivery shall be indicated on the statement of assignment. The uniform fee for the filing, noting in the index of the financing or continuation statement the fact of such assignment and its record reference, furnishing a receipt for such filing and recording the assignment in either the financing records or the land records, as the case may be, shall be the amount [specified in § 7-202(b)(10)] DETERMINED UNDER § 7-202 of the Courts Article [of the Code].

A secured party of record may by his signed statement release all or a part of any collateral described in a filed financing statement. The statement of release is sufficient if it contains a description of the collateral being released, the name and address of
