(f) The decision of the court thus given shall be final and effective at once. No further appeal shall lie [to the Court of Appeals of the State,] nor shall there be any other remedy by which the local board's decision may be reviewed in court, either by way of mandamus, injunction, certiorari or otherwise. However, if any judge of the circuit court of any county, or the Baltimore City Court, shall in any case finally decide a point of law at variance with any decision previously rendered by any other judge of the State on the same question, an appeal may be taken from the decision rendered to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland]. Any such appeal shall not stay the action of the lower court. The Court of SPECIAL Appeals shall only decide the question of law involved in such an appeal and shall not pass upon any question of fact.

SECTION 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 184 of Article 11 - Banks and Trust Companies, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1968 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 11 - Banks and Trust Companies

Any person, whose license is revoked or suspended by the Commissioner as provided in this subtitle, may appeal to the circuit court of any county or any law court of Baltimore City for a review and the overruling of the said final order of the Commissioner. Upon any such appeal, the Commissioner shall have the power to stay his order until the appeal is finally determined. There shall be a further right of appeal to the Court of
