

75.

(e) When a warrant is revoked by an order of court or its execution is stayed, the clerk of the court by which the warrant is revoked, or the clerk of the court by which the sentence was imposed in the case of an appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals OR ON CERTIORARI IN THE COURT OF APPEALS [of Maryland] and the compliance with the requirements of [Article 5 of the Code, subtitle "Appeals in Criminal Cases,"] TITLE 12 OF THE COURTS ARTICLE ON APPEALS IN CRIMINAL CASES, shall notify the warden forthwith, by telephone if necessary, that said warrant has been revoked or its execution has been stayed, as the case may be, and shall transmit forthwith to the warden a certificate that said warrant has been revoked or its execution stayed. The Governor shall notify the warden forthwith of the revocation of a warrant by him.

443.

(g) Any person aggrieved by the action of the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police and/or his duly authorized agent or agents may appeal the disapproval of his or her application for a pistol and revolver dealer's license to the circuit court of the county where the applicant's intended place of business is to be conducted or to the Baltimore City Court, if the applicant's intended place of business is to be conducted within the limits of Baltimore City. Such appeal must be filed not later than thirty days from the date written notification of disapproval to the prospective licensee was mailed by the said Superintendent and/or his duly authorized agent or agents. The court wherein an appeal is properly and timely filed shall affirm or reverse the determination of disapproval rendered by the said Superintendent and/or his duly authorized agent or agents, depending upon whether it finds that any false information or statement was supplied or made by the applicant, or that the application was not properly completed. A further appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals may be prosecuted by either the Superintendent of the Maryland State Police or the applicant from the decision reached by the circuit court or Baltimore City Court in accordance with this subsection.

645A.

(b) For the purposes of this subtitle, an allegation of error shall be deemed to be finally litigated when the [Court of Appeals or] Court of Special Appeals has rendered a decision on the merits thereof, either upon direct appeal or upon any consideration of an application for leave to appeal filed pursuant to § 645-I of this subtitle; or when a court of original jurisdiction, after a full and fair hearing, has rendered a decision on the merits thereof upon a petition for a writ of habeas corpus or a writ of error coram nobis,
