

Article 43 - Health

193.

(f) Any applicant for a license, or any license holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of said Board in failing to issue or in revoking or suspending such license, may take an appeal therefrom to any court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the property identified by the application or license is located if within the counties of Maryland, or to a court having such jurisdiction in the City of Baltimore if said property is located in said city, or outside the State of Maryland. Such appeal shall be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted but the court may hear such additional evidence as it may deem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. Either party to said proceedings may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland].

207.

The State Board of Health and Mental Hygiene shall have the power to deny or withhold the issuance of or to revoke or suspend any license issued under the provisions of this subtitle, provided before denying, withholding, revoking or suspending any license the Board shall have given written notice to the applicant or licensee affected, stating that it contemplates the denial, withholding, revocation or suspension of the same and giving its reasons therefor. Such notice shall appoint a time of hearing before said Board and shall be sent by registered mail to applicant or licensee. On the date of the hearing the applicant or licensee may present such evidence to the said Board as he deems fit, and after hearing all the evidence the Board shall decide within fifteen (15) days the question in such a manner as to it appears just and right and shall inform the applicant or licensee immediately thereafter of its decision. Any applicant for a license, or any license holder who shall feel aggrieved by the action of the Board in failing to issue or in revoking or suspending such license, may take an appeal therefrom to any court having equity jurisdiction in the county in which the property identified by the application or license is located, or to a court having such jurisdiction in the City of Baltimore if said property is located in said city. Such appeal shall be heard by such court as promptly as circumstances will reasonably permit. Such hearing may be had upon the record so transmitted but the court may hear such additional evidence as it may deem proper, and upon the conclusion of such hearing the court may affirm, vacate or modify the order appealed from. Either party to said proceeding may appeal from the decision of such court to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland].
