

providing for the payment of the expenses of the authority, the construction, reconstruction, extension, repair, improvements, maintenance and operation of its facilities and properties, the payment of the principal of and interest on its bonds, and to fulfill the terms and provisions of any agreements made with the purchasers or holders of any of its bonds, or with the municipality or municipalities incorporating, or the municipalities which are members of, said authority or with any municipality served or to be served by said authority; said rates, fees and charges to be at reasonable and uniform rates to be determined exclusively by the authority. Any person questioning the reasonableness or uniformity of any rate, fee or charge fixed by an authority may bring suit against the authority in the circuit court of the county wherein the project is located or in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City if the project is located in Baltimore City, or if the project is located in one or more municipalities then in the circuit court of the county wherein the principal office of the project is located or in the Circuit Court of Baltimore City if the principal office of the project is located in Baltimore City. The said court shall have exclusive jurisdiction to determine the reasonableness and uniformity of the rates, fees and other charges fixed, altered, charged or collected by an authority. Appeals may be taken to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals from the decision of a lower court.

Any person aggrieved by a final decision of the Board denying, suspending, revoking, or refusing to renew a license, or by any other final action of the Board, may appeal therefrom to the Baltimore City Court or to the circuit court of the county in which he resides or has his principal place of business. Any such person or the Board may take an appeal from the decision of any such court to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland]. All appeals shall be governed by the provisions of §§ 255 and 256 of Article 41 of this Code as amended from time to time (Administrative Procedure Act--Judicial Review).

(b) Before revoking or suspending any license, the Board shall furnish a copy of the complaint and charges to the person charged, and afford that person an opportunity for a hearing before the Board, in person or by his attorney. The Board's action shall be made in writing, giving the reasons for its action, and a copy shall be delivered or mailed to the person charged. Within sixty days after receipt of notice of revocation or suspension the person charged may appeal the action of the Board to the circuit court of the county or the Baltimore City Court where the person resides. Either party to the appeal has a further right to appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals from the decision of the court
