

illegal. The appeal shall be heard by the court without a jury or with a jury if either party so requests. The State Board of Education may be a party to the appeal. If the court affirms the action of the State Board of Education in revoking a certificate, the revocation of the certificate shall thereupon become effective, if previously stayed. Either party has the right of appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals from any decision of the court on the question of denial or revocation of a certificate.

SECTION 18. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 42, 93(b), and 98 of Article 78 - Public Service Commission Law, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1975 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 78 - Public Service Commission Law

Within forty-five days after the conclusion of a hearing held under the provisions of §§ 39 to 44, the Commission shall issue an order dismissing the complaint or requiring compliance with a regulation of the Commission. The Commission may, in its discretion, allow the employer not to exceed forty-five days within which to comply with an order. Any person aggrieved by the order of the Commission may appeal to the circuit court of the county or of Baltimore City in which the place of employment is located, and in such action the Commission may be a party. The decision of the circuit court may be appealed to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals.

(b) All proceedings before the courts (except the Court of SPECIAL Appeals OR THE COURT OF APPEALS) under this article, including all those prosecuted by the Commission, all those to which the Commission or the people's counsel has become a party, and all those in which any question arises under this article, or which concern any rule, regulation, order or other action of the Commission, shall be preferred over all other civil causes except election causes in all the courts of this State, irrespective of their position on the dockets; and the courts shall always be open for the trial of such proceedings.

An aggrieved party may obtain further review of any final judgment in any proceeding brought pursuant to this subtitle, by appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals. Such appeal shall be taken in the manner provided by law for appeals from equity courts in other civil cases.
