

article, shall be accorded notice and opportunity to be heard, in accordance with the procedures prescribed by law for discharges for other reasons. Every person and every board, commission, council, department, or other agency of the State of Maryland or any political subdivision thereof having responsibility for the appointment, employment or supervision of public employees not covered by the classified service in this section referred to, shall establish rules or procedures similar to those required herein for classified services for a hearing for any person charged with being a subversive person, as defined in this article, after notice and opportunity to be heard. Every employing authority discharging any person pursuant to any provision of this article shall promptly report to the special assistant attorney general in charge of subversive activities the fact of and the circumstances surrounding such discharge. A person discharged under the provisions of this section shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the county or to the Baltimore City court wherein such person may reside for a determination by such court (with the aid of a jury, if the appellant so elects) as to whether or not the discharge appealed from was justified under the provisions of this article. The court shall speedily hear and determine such appeals, and from the judgment of the court, there shall be a further appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland] as in civil cases.

SECTION 23. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Section 32A(d) of Article 88A - Social Services Administration, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) be and it is hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 88A - Social Services Administration

32A.

(d) A person, firm, corporation or agency aggrieved by the refusal of the State Department of Social Services to issue a license under this section or by the State Department's revocation or suspension of such a license, may appeal therefrom to the circuit court of the county in which the person, firm, corporation or agency has his or its residence or principal office, as the case may be, or to the Baltimore City Court, if the office or residence is in Baltimore City. There is a further right of appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals [of Maryland] at the instance of either party.
