Article 96 1/2 - Veterans

18.

A Second World War veteran, who shall feel aggrieved by the action or refusal to act of the State or other governmental unit in any case involving rights or privileges granted to such veteran by this subtitle, shall have the right to appeal to the circuit court of the county having jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved, or to the Superior Court of Baltimore City if the State Commissioner of personnel is involved, or if the courts of Baltimore City have jurisdiction of the governmental unit involved, and in case more than one court shall have jurisdiction of any governmental unit, the appeal may be taken to any court having jurisdiction. Upon appeal, the court, without intervention of a jury, shall hear the case de novo, and shall fully determine the rights of the complaining veteran and pass an appropriate order. From the order of the lower court in any such case, there shall be an appeal to the Court of SPECIAL Appeals by either the veteran or the State, or other governmental unit involved.

If any Second World War veteran seeking court relief, as this section provided, shall apply to the judge of the lower court having jurisdiction of his appeal, the judge shall assign counsel to such veteran without cost to him. No court costs shall be assessed against any veteran seeking court relief as in this section provided.
