Article - Natural Resources

3-130.

If the Service and a municipality or person fail to reach agreement on rates, fees, or other charges to be exacted by the Service, the Public Service Commission, [upon] ON the petition of either party to the disagreement, shall assume jurisdiction for the purpose of arbitrating the disagreement. Its determination shall be final and binding on all parties concerned, subject to the right of any party to appeal the determination to the circuit court of any county within which the municipality or person is located, resides, or carries on business, or to any equity court in Baltimore City. In any appeal the decision of the Commission is prima facie correct and shall be affirmed unless clearly shown to be (1) in violation of constitutional provisions, or (2) made [upon] ON unlawful procedure, or (3) arbitrary or
