

CHAPTER 521

(House Bill 1901)

AN ACT concerning

Brick Meeting House Lot
East Nottingham, Cecil County

FOR the purpose of authorizing the State of Maryland through the Board of Public Works, to sell, grant, convey and execute a deed to The Corporation of Trustees for the Brick Meeting House Lot in East Nottingham, Cecil County, Maryland, a religious Corporation of the State of Maryland, of any right or possibility of a right of reverter vested in the State of Maryland under the patent granted to said Corporation by the State of Maryland dated February 13, 1792, and recorded in Liber I.C. No. H, folio 19, one of the Land Records Books of the State of Maryland.

WHEREAS, On the 13th day of February, 1792, a Patent, recorded in Liber I.C. No. H, folio 19, one of the Land Records of the State of Maryland, was issued by the State of Maryland granting to certain Elisha Brown, Thomas Rogers, Joseph England, Joseph Reynolds and James Trimble, Trustees of the Brick Meeting House Lot, in East Nottingham, Cecil County, Maryland, 40 acres of land, situate in the Cecil County, at or near a village, now known as Calvert, for a meeting house for religious worship for the Society of People, called Quakers, and for a burial ground for the Society of People and described as follows: Beginning at a corner stone, standing about eightyseven perches distant on a South course from the street line and fifty-three perches distant from the Northeast corner of Brick Meeting House (so called), on a course northeast by north, and thence, by the land of John Day (now land of the Rosebank Cemetery and Henry C. Thompson), south four degrees east, eighty perches to a stone, thence by the land of Elisha Hughes (now land of C. England and others) north eighty-nine degrees West eighty-two perches to a post, thence by the land of John White (now land of Iva McKinney and Mabel Ewing) north two degrees west eighty perches to a post, thence by the land of the said White and the aforesaid John Day, respectively (now land of William Hambleton) south eighty-nine degrees east, eighty perches to the beginning, containing 40 acres; and

WHEREAS, In accordance with the Acts of Assembly of Maryland, in such case made and provided for the formation of religious corporations, a corporation was formed, on the 11th day of January, 1811, under the corporate name of "The Corporation of Trustees for the Brick Meeting House Lot, in East Nottingham, Cecil County, Maryland," which will appear from the Article of