

[ (a) Except in Anne Arundel County and Worcester County, for which provision is made by subsection (b) of this section, it shall be the policy of county boards of education to establish such citizen-advisory committees as they deem necessary to facilitate the activities and programs of the boards and any school or schools under their supervision.

(b) (1) The Anne Arundel County Board of Education shall establish citizen-advisory committees to advise the board and facilitate the activities and programs of the board in any school or schools under its supervision. The committees shall be so constituted as to be representative of the community as a whole.

(2) The members of the citizen-advisory committees serving one school shall be selected from among the parents of the students attending that school and interested citizens from the community.

(3) One committee shall be established to serve the county generally. This committee shall be composed of representatives selected generally from each school region.

(c) The Worcester County Board of Education shall establish citizen-advisory committees to facilitate the activities and programs of the board in any school or schools under its supervision. The committees shall be so constituted as to be representative of the community as a whole.]

142.

[The mayor and city council of Baltimore shall have full power and authority to establish in said city a system of free public schools, which shall include a school or schools for manual or industrial training, under such ordinances, rules and regulations as they may deem fit and proper to enact and prescribe; they may delegate supervisory powers and control to a board of school commissioners; may prescribe rules for building schoolhouses, and locating, establishing and closing schools, and may in general do every act that may be necessary or proper in the premises.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That new Sections 1A, 2, 3, 6, 11, 49, 56D, 57(f), 130A(j), 142, 218, 219 and 220 be and they are hereby added to Article 77 - Public Education, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1975 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) to read as follows:
