

ARTICLE 89B, §§ 163 to 181, inclusive, of [this article] THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND (1957 EDITION, AS AMENDED), including the payment of any redemption premium thereon and any interest accrued or to accrue to the date of redemption of such bonds and, if deemed advisable by the Commission, for any one or more of the following additional purposes: (a) constructing improvements of any project or projects in connection with which bonds shall have been issued under the provisions of this subheading, and (b) paying all or any part of the cost of any additional project or projects. In case the Commission, prior to the issuance of any revenue refunding bonds, shall have expended any sum not derived from the revenues of a project for the purpose of paying a part of the cost of maintaining, repairing and operating such project, the amount of revenue refunding bonds issued under the provisions of this section may be increased to the extent necessary to provide funds for reimbursing the Commission the sum theretofore so expended. The issuance of such bonds, the maturities and other details thereof, the rights and remedies of the holders thereof, and the rights, duties and obligations of the Commission in respect of the same, shall be governed by the provisions of this subheading insofar as the same may be applicable.

§23. [§ 138.] Additional method.

The foregoing sections of this subheading shall be deemed to provide an additional and alternative method for the doing of the things authorized thereby, and shall be regarded as supplemental and additional to powers conferred by other laws, and shall not be regarded as in derogation of any powers now existing; provided, however, that the issuance of revenue bonds or revenue refunding bonds under the provisions of this subheading need not comply with the requirements of any other law applicable to the issuance of bonds.

§24. [§ 139.] Liberal construction.

The provisions of this subheading, being necessary for the welfare of the State and its inhabitants, shall be liberally construed to [affect] EFFECT the purposes thereof.

§25. [§ 140.] Severability.

The provisions of this subheading are severable, and if any of its provisions shall be held unconstitutional by any court of competent jurisdiction, the decision of such court shall not [effect] AFFECT or impair any of the remaining provisions.

SECTION 4. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That Sections 141 through 162, inclusive, of Article 89B - State Roads, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, and transferred
