

the compensation to be paid shall be ascertained and paid, in the manner provided by or referred to in ARTICLE 89B, § 8 or § 64 or § 9 of [this article] THE ANNOTATED CODE OF MARYLAND (1957 EDITION, AS AMENDED) or in Title 12 of the Real Property Article of the Code, or in any of said sections or amendments thereto, or by the Constitution or any other law or laws of the State of Maryland then applicable which relate to condemnation or to the exercise of the power of eminent domain. Title to any property acquired by the Commission shall be taken in the name of the State. In any condemnation proceeding the court having jurisdiction of the suit, action or proceeding may make such orders as may be just to the Commission and to the owners of the property to be condemned and may require an undertaking or other security to secure such owners against any loss or damage by reason of the failure of the Commission to accept and pay for the property, but neither such undertaking or security nor any act or obligation of the Commission shall impose any liability upon the State except as may be paid from the funds provided under the authority of this subheading.

(c) Obtaining possession of property to be condemned.— If the owner, lessee or occupier of any property to be condemned shall refuse to remove his personal property therefrom or give up possession thereof, the Commission may proceed to obtain possession in any manner now or hereafter provided by law.

(d) Condemnation of railroad property or right-of-way.— With respect to any railroad property or right-of-way upon which railroad tracks are located, any powers of condemnation or of eminent domain may be exercised to acquire only an easement interest therein which shall be located either sufficiently far above or sufficiently far below the grade of any railroad track or tracks upon such railroad property so that neither the Expressway nor any part thereof, including any bridges, abutments, columns, supporting structures and appurtenances, nor any traffic upon it shall interfere in any manner with the use, operation or maintenance of the trains, tracks, works or appurtenances or other property used by the railroad for railroad purposes nor endanger the movement of the trains or traffic upon the tracks of the railroad. Prior to the institution of condemnation proceedings for such easement over or under such railroad property or right-of-way, plans and specifications of the Expressway showing compliance with the above mentioned above or below grade requirements and showing sufficient and safe plans and specifications of such overhead or undergrade structure and appurtenances shall be submitted to the railroad for examination and approval. If the railroad fails or refuses within sixty days to approve the plans and specifications so submitted, the matter shall be submitted to the Public Service Commission of Maryland whose decision, arrived at after due consideration in accordance with its usual procedure, shall be final as to the sufficiency and safety of such plans and specifications and as to such elevations or
