

Article 89B - State Roads
Section 38B(c), 232, and 252
Annotated Code of Maryland
(1969 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Section 38B(c), 232, and 252 of Article 89B - State Roads, of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1969 Replacement Volume and 1975 Supplement) be and they are hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 89B - State Roads

38B.

(c) Footpaths, bridle paths or horse trails, AND bicycle trails may be established under subsection (a) of this section, unless:

(1) The establishment of the footpaths, bridle paths or horse trails and bicycle trails would be contrary to public safety;

(2) The cost of establishing the footpaths, bridle paths or horse trails and bicycle trails would be excessively disproportionate to the need or to the probable use thereof: or

(3) The sparsity of population, the existence of other available ways or other factors demonstrate an absence of any need for the footpaths, bridle paths or horse trails and bicycle trails.

232.

Any lease executed prior to June 1, 1958, for the aforementioned purposes and applying to property within 660 feet of the right-of-way line of any expressway, shall become null and void for the purpose for which the lease was made on June 1, 1961; any lease executed prior to June 1, 1959, for the aforementioned purposes and applying to property more than 600 feet and not in excess of 660 feet from the right-of-way line of any expressway, shall become null and void for the purpose for which the lease was made on June 1, 1962; and after either date the continuation of any advertising structure on the land so leased shall become unlawful, except nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent a property owner from erecting advertising signs on his own property advertising the sale or lease of the property or the sale of produce grown or made thereon or a service performed thereon or therein, provided the owner first obtains a permit from the State Highway Administration. The Administration shall grant a permit upon application, without [charge however] CHARGE, HOWEVER, the Administration may regulate the location and the size of the advertising sign or