

self-insurance.

Certain forms of private insurance have very high deductibles, which are covered by self-insurance. When losses are suffered by special fund agencies covered by private insurance having a very high deductible, they seem to be entitled to payment from the fund for losses in excess of $1,000 as provided by Section 31 of Article 95 up to the amount of the loss or up to the amount of the deductible:

Problem

The State Self-Insurance Trust Fund consists largely of General Fund appropriations. Should any portion of the General Funds be utilized to pay the losses of Special Fund Agencies?

Now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That the President of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of Delegates organize a study of the payment of losses incurred by Special Fund Agencies from the Self-Insurance Trust Fund either by a committee organized specifically for that purpose or by a standing committee of either the Senate or the House of Delegates.

Approved May 4, 1976.
