

Union since World War II; and

WHEREAS, The Soviet Union will attempt to obtain the recognition by the European Security Conference of its annexation of these nations; and

WHEREAS, The United States Delegation to the European Security Conference should not agree to the recognition of the forcible conquest of these nations by the Soviet Union; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That this Body urges the United States Delegation to the European Security Conference not agree to the recognition by the European Security Conference of the Soviet Union's annexation of Estonia, Latvia and Lithuania, and that it should remain the policy of the United States not to recognize in any way the annexation of the Baltic nations by the Soviet Union; and be it further

RESOLVED, That copies of this Resolution be sent to Delegate Paul E. Weisengoff, House of Delegates Building, Annapolis, Maryland, for distribution.

Approved May 17, 1976.

-----
No. 76

(House Joint Resolution No. 140)

A House Joint Resolution concerning

Full Employment Act of 1976

FOR the purpose of urging the Maryland Congressional Delegation to support [[the]] a Full Employment Act [[of 1976 (United States HR 50)]] providing for equal opportunity for useful paid employment for all adult Americans able and willing to work.

[[United States Representative Augustus F. Hawkins (D-Cal.) has introduced a major piece of legislation, HR 50: Equal Opportunity and Full Employment Act.]]

The need for [[such]] a [[law]] Full Employment Act is revealed, starkly, in the figures which assault us with almost daily regularity -- growing unemployment, diminishing gross national product, sharply reduced public services. Rising in giant leaps, unemployment is fast approaching 8 percent of the work force, and much higher for youth, older persons, and others. Truly, it is a national disaster. At best, current public service employment authorizations will provide jobs for fewer than one in ten of the currently unemployed. The