

appointed; and such appointee, before he enters upon the duties of his office, shall execute and deliver a bond of the same tenor and in like manner, and take an oath in due form of law to faithfully perform the duties of his office as hereinbefore directed; the County Commissioners may, at any time, demand of said treasurer such further bond, with such further security, as in their judgment the interest of the county may require, and shall prescribe for the said treasurer office hours, during which said office shall be kept open.

The said Treasurer shall receive and pay over according to the directions of law or the order of the County Commissioners the proceeds of all taxes levied in said county, and shall keep full accounts of all monies received and paid by him, and of all matters relating to the duties of his office, with all vouchers relating thereto; in case of the death or resignation of said treasurer at any time during the term for which he shall have been appointed or elected, the County Commissioners shall within twenty days thereafter appoint someone to fill said vacancy, who shall take the oath and give the bond hereinbefore required to be taken and given by the treasurer; and the treasurer shall, at the expiration of his term of office, transfer and deliver to his successors in office all books, accounts and papers of every kind connected with his office.]

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1976.

Approved April 13, 1976.
