

entitled to the equitable distribution by the Anatomy Board of bodies which are under its custody and control (Sections 158 and 160(a)).

For the reasons indicated above, the signing of House Bill 583 would raise several interpretative questions and would appear to result in at least one unintended change in the law. This is not to say that it is unconstitutional or legally insufficient.

House Bill No. 727 - State Police Overtime

AN ACT concerning

State Police - Overtime

FOR the purpose of providing that law enforcement employees of the Maryland State Police may be paid overtime in excess of the maximum allowable yearly amount if funds are available from certain sources; increasing the maximum yearly overtime amount allowable for certain employees; and making style changes.

May 17, 1976.

Honorable John Hanson Briscoe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House
Annapolis, Maryland 21404

Dear Mr. Speaker:

In accordance with Article II, Section 17 of the Maryland Constitution, I have today vetoed House Bill 727.

This bill increases the maximum annual overtime pay which may be earned by certain members of the Maryland State Police, and it authorizes the payment of overtime from certain funds in certain instances.

Senate Bill 748, which was enacted by the General Assembly and signed by me on May 17, 1976, accomplishes the same purposes as House Bill 727.
