

sources of refund shall be as specified in the applicable provisions of Sections 213 through 219, inclusive, of this article."

From this language, it is impossible to determine what the bill means.

For this reason, I have decided to veto House Bill 998.

Sincerely,
Marvin Mandel
Governor

House Bill No. 1008 - State Documents Law

AN ACT concerning

State Documents Law

For the purpose of providing for publication of indices and an annual cumulative index to the Maryland Register; clarifying the provisions that relate to incorporation by reference of certain publications into the Code of Maryland Regulations and Maryland Register; modifying the provisions that relate to required publication before amendment, or repeal of rules; modifying the procedures for filing emergency rules; clarifying the provisions that relate to official texts of documents; specifying the requirements for amendment and correction of official texts; specifying that the contents of the Maryland Register and Code of Maryland Regulations shall be judicially noticed; requiring certain procedures before reprinting of certain documents published in the Maryland Register and Code of Maryland Regulations; specifying that, except under certain conditions, provisions of documents are severable; defining the term "Code of Maryland Regulations" to include permanent supplements to the Code and deleting unnecessary references to the supplement; and clarifying the language of, renumbering certain provisions of, and generally relating to the State Documents Law.

May 17, 1976.

Honorable John Hanson Eriscoe
Speaker of the House of Delegates
State House