

"Construction by county."; subsections (a) and (b) of Section 49-40, title "Performance bond."; Section 49-52; title "Road construction to be authorized by county executive; council to assess benefits."; to add two new subsections (d) and (e); and Section 49-55 title "Assessment of cost by county council." of Chapter 49, title "Streets and Roads," Montgomery County Code 1972, to provide for an increase in frontage from seventy (70) to eighty (80) feet where sidewalks, curbs and gutters are not required; to provide for the assessment of all costs of construction including cost of right-of-way acquisitions up to amount of special benefit; to authorize the construction of bikeways to serve general community needs by the County without regard to standards and specifications; to provide for a release of cash and corporate performance bonds by stages; to provide for a presumption of no benefit for street assessment cost for property improved or unimproved which is zoned residential and is not developed or master planned for institutional, multiple family, industrial, or commercial use, abuts a County maintained two-lane capacity, paved roadway and is incapable of subdivision into more than two additional residential lots; to provide that assessments may be waived against properties for roads undertaken by the County within the boundaries of, or for urban renewal projects, community redevelopment projects and neighborhood improvement projects approved in the Capital Improvements Programs for the purpose of eliminating and preventing blight, slums, or deterioration of a neighborhood or designated area; and to set forth certain time limitations.

Chapter 17

AN ACT to add to Chapter 12, title "Courts," of the Montgomery County Code 1972, as amended, a new Section 12-8A, title "Appellate judges' secretaries; salary supplements," to authorize judges of the Maryland appellate courts resident in Montgomery County to set within certain limits supplements to the State salaries for their secretaries, which supplements shall be paid from funds appropriated therefor by the County Council.

Chapter 18

AN ACT to add to the Montgomery County Code 1972, as amended, a new Chapter 29A, title "Legislative Oversight", to establish a procedure through which