Sections 269 through 272, inclusive
Article 21 - Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition, as added
by Chapter 389 of the Acts of 1961)

SECTION 1. BE IT ENACTED BY THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF MARYLAND, That Sections 269 through 272, inclusive, of the Public Local Laws of Talbot County being Article 21 of the Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition, as added by Chapter 389 of the Acts of 1961) be and they are hereby repealed:

Article 21

[269.

The Circuit Court for Talbot County is authorized to prescribe by general rules the practice and procedure in all cases or actions before Justices of the Peace designated as Trial Magistrates in Talbot County. Such rules shall neither abridge, enlarge nor modify the substantive rights of any litigant, but as used in this sub-title, the terms "practice and procedure" shall be liberally construed, and without intending hereby to limit their comprehensive application, shall be deemed to include process, writs, pleading, parties, trials and judgments. Such general rules shall take effect on the date as prescribed therein. Upon taking effect such rules and any subsequent amendments or additions thereto, shall supersede any prior inconsistent public general or public local law. Such rules may be rescinded, changed, modified or added to from time to time by the Circuit Court for Talbot County or by the General Assembly, and such alterations or additions to the rules shall become effective at such time as the Circuit Court for Talbot County or the General Assembly shall provide.]

[270.

The Circuit Court for Talbot County is also authorized to prescribe, in the manner set forth in Section 269, in civil actions for service of summons, which may include as a part thereof a copy of the statement of claim and verification, by registered or certified mail with return receipt.]

[271.

The Justices of the Peace designated as Trial Magistrates in Talbot County shall be entitled to receive and collect the following fees and costs, which fees and costs shall be in substitution of any fees and costs now provided for by law:

For docketing, indexing and trial, including judgment or dismissal of any civil action
