remarries—before—the—youngest—shild—of—the—deceased member—has—attained—the—age—of—18,—then—to—the—shild—or—shildren—under—eighteen—divided—in—a—manner—as—the—board in—its—discretion—determines—to—continue—as—a—joint—and survivorship—pension—for—the—benefit—of—the—shild—or—shildren—under—18—until—every—shild—dies—or—attains——18; or—if—there—is—no—spouse—or—shildren—under—the—age—of—18 years—surviving—member,—then—to—his—or—her—dependent—father—or—dependent—mother—as—the—board—in—its—discretion—directs—to—continue—for—life,—a—pension—of—50—percent—of—his—or—her—average—final—compensation——If—the—member—at the—the—of—doath—does—not—leave—a—spouse,—shild—or—parents,—the—ordinary—death—bonefit—shall—be—the—only—death—benefit—payable—

(6) The cost of special death—benefits—provided herein, exclusive—of benefits—for members whose death arises—out—of—in—the course—of—actual—performance—of duty,—shall—be—paid—as—follows:—The—State—of—Maryland shall—pay—the—costs—of—the—special—death—benefits, including—normal contribution—rate—and—accrued—liability rate,—if—the—cost—is—not—in—excess—of—the—current employer*s—contribution—rate—for—federal—old—age—and survivors!—insurance; any excess in—cost—of—the—special death—benefits—over—the—current—rate—for—old—age—and survivors!—insurance—shall—be—paid—by—the—members.—The State—of—Maryland—shall—pay—the—full—cost—of—special death—benefits—applicable—to—members—whose—death—arises out—of—or—in—the—course—of—actual—performance—of—duty.

SECTION 4 3. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this act shall take effect July 1, 1977.

Approved April 29, 1977.

CHAPTER 167

(Senate Bill 216)

AN ACT concerning

Charges - Statement by Lender

FOR the purpose of including the total principal amount and total amount of certain charges of certain loans within the exception to the requirement for a statement by a lender when covered by the Federal Truth-in-Lending Act.

BY repealing and reenacting, with amendments,

Article - Commercial Law Section 12-106(b) (1)