repealed:

Article - Agriculture

2-301.

[(h) "Temporary permit" means a temporary permit to practice veterinary medicine, issued pursuant to this subtitle.]

[2-309.

(a) Any veterinarian applying for a temporary permit shall associate himself with a licensed and registered veterinarian in the state, and his work shall be limited to the practice of the veterinary practitioner.

(b) The permit shall bear the name and address of the veterinary practitioner.

(c) The permit fee is $75. This sum shall be applied toward the examination fee, but shall be forfeited if the applicant fails to present himself at either of the next two scheduled examinations.

(d) The applicant shall present himself for examination at either of the next two scheduled examinations of the Board.

(e) The permit shall expire on the day following
