

Art. 1A, §8-802(b)(1), the second clause of (b)(2), and (c).

Throughout this section and elsewhere in this subtitle, the phrase "or other vegetation" is added as a more correct, specific substitution for the phrase, presently appearing in the definition of "tree" in Art. 1A, §1-123: "any object of natural growth".

In subsection (a) of this section, the present references to "modifying", "supplementing", or "changing" a regulation are deleted as redundant.

In subsection (b) of this section, the present references to a "tree" are deleted to conform to the modification made in §5-504 of this subtitle; see revisor's note to that section.

In subsection (b)(1) of this section, the present reference to "lowering or other change" is deleted as redundant.

In subsection (c) of this section, the introductory phrase, "[e]xcept as otherwise provided...", is new language added since §5-509(g) of this subtitle does permit a turning zone district at BWI of 4 miles from the center, which in some instances may exceed 3 miles from the outer perimeter.

The first clause of present subsection (b)(2), which states that all regulations "shall have full force of law", is deleted as an unnecessary statement of the obvious; cf. §5-511 of this subtitle, which establishes criminal penalties for violation of any of these regulations.

The only other changes are in style.
