

hereby repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

Article 77 - Public Education

73A.

(a) (1) The Prince George's County [superintendent of schools] BOARD OF EDUCATION shall devise an affidavit of disclosure form to be completed and signed by parents or guardians of a student [in the public schools of Prince George's County:

(i) who is currently enrolled or attending school during the calendar year 1976;

(ii)] who is entering the Prince George's County school system[; or

(iii) who changes residence within Prince George's County].

(2) By regulation, [he] THE BOARD shall make completion of an affidavit of disclosure a prerequisite of admission to the public schools, except that parents and guardians who are newly arrived residents shall have 30 days after enrollment, if necessary, to complete such affidavit.

(b) The purpose of the affidavit of disclosure shall be limited to ascertaining from a parent or guardian of a student in the public schools his or her legal residence, AND the duration of his or her residency in Maryland[, the registration numbers of motor vehicles owned by a parent or guardian, and his or her driver's permit number and the state, district, or territory which issued it].

(c) The parent or guardian completing the affidavit of disclosure shall attest to the truth of the information contained in it by his or her signature which shall be witnessed by persons designated by the Prince George's County [superintendent of schools] BOARD OF EDUCATION under appropriate rules and regulations.

(d) [The Prince George's County superintendent of schools shall forward a copy of an affidavit of disclosure to the Motor Vehicle Administration and to the Income Tax Division of the Comptroller of the Treasury.

(e)] Failure to truthfully complete the affidavit of disclosure by the parent or guardian is a misdemeanor, and a person found guilty of violation of this section shall be punished by a fine not to exceed $250.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1977.
