464C.

(a) A person is guilty of a sexual offense in the fourth degree if the person engages:

(1) In sexual contact with another person against the will and without the consent of the other person; or

(2) In a sexual act with another person who is 15 years of age and the person performing the sexual act is four or more years older than the other person; or

(3) In vaginal intercourse with another person who is 14 or 15 years of age and the person performing the [sexual] act is four or more years older than the other person.

(b) Any person violating the provisions of this section is guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction is subject to imprisonment for a period of not more than one year, or a fine of not more than $1,000, or both fine and imprisonment.

616 1/2.

(c) Any person charged with an offense hereinafter enumerated committed during the time that person had been released on bail or his own recognizance for committing an offense hereinafter enumerated, is ineligible to give bail or be released on recognizance on the subsequent charge, until all prior charges hereunder have finally been determined by the courts. But a person charged with a subsequent crime hereinafter set forth, may rebut his ineligibility for release on bail or recognizance before determination of the prior charge. If, after consideration of the matters presented in rebuttal, the court hearing the application for bail is persuaded that the applicant would not pose a danger to any other person or to the community, and would appear at the time set for trial, the court may allow release pending trial on suitable bail or recognizance and on such other conditions as will reasonably assure that the person charged will not flee. For the purposes of this subsection, court does not mean District Court commissioners and the offenses are those specified in the following sections of Article 27 of the Annotated Code of Maryland (1967 Repl. Vol.) as they may be amended from time to time:

(1) Section 6 (relating to burning of property, etc.);

(2) Section 7 (relating to burning of barn,
