

drawn thereunder for writing the name, and under the name and under this line the words "Number of Voter," followed by a blank space for the insertion of a number. Before distribution the ballot shall be folded in marked creases so that no part of the marks or printing thereon shall be visible, excepting that which appears upon the back and outside and the detachable stub or coupon; and so that the folded ballot shall be of uniform width and length and proper width to be deposited in the ballot boxes. All ballots when printed shall be folded as above provided, and fastened together in convenient numbers in packages, books or blocks, so that each ballot may be detached and removed separately. [Not less than five days before any election the form and arrangement of the ballot to be used in the election, showing the offices, names of candidates, constitutional amendments and questions thereon, shall be prepared by the board and made available for inspection by any candidate whose name shall appear thereon or the official representative of any political party having a candidate on such ballot.] For a primary election, as many different sets of official ballots shall be printed and supplied by the board at each polling place as there are parties participating in the primary, the ballot of each party to be a different color. The names of all candidates, delegates to any convention, or for State or local central committee of the various parties entitled to hold a primary election shall be included on the ballots.

(a) A registered voter offering to vote at any election, before being permitted to vote, shall identify himself by signing a voting authority card and giving any change of address or name in the presence of the judges which shall be entered on the voting authority card or on a change of address or name form by the voter. WHEN ELECTRONICALLY REPRODUCED VOTER AUTHORITY CARDS ARE USED, THE VOTER SHALL ENTER HIS DATE ~~AND PLACE~~ OF BIRTH IN THE SPACES PROVIDED, IF SUCH INFORMATION IS NOT PREPRINTED. Unless an electronically reproduced precinct register is used, the judge in charge of the precinct register shall compare the signature upon that card with the signature upon the registration card, and if they are not identical, the applicant may not be permitted to vote unless the majority of judges are of the opinion that he is the same person whose name appears upon the registration card. If the entry "Cannot sign" appears upon the registration card, or if an electronically produced precinct register is used, then the applicant shall state his age, which shall be compared with the age stated upon the registration card or the listed voter registration information, as the case may be, or the applicant shall identify himself by such other means as are referred to upon the registration card or listed information. If, upon comparison of the signature or other identification, it is found that the applicant is entitled to vote, then the judge having charge of the
