

House Bill 1822, which became Chapter 241, was amended in several respects. Originally, § 1 provided, among other things, that Article 48A, § 243B(a) and (c) was repealed and reenacted, with amendments. After amendment, § 1 provides that § 243B(c) is repealed and reenacted, with amendments, but subsection (a) remains in the bill, with the original brackets eliminated and a new sentence added. In the title, the words "authorizing the Fund to insure certain persons" have been bracketed out. Subsection (a), therefore, ought to be repealed and reenacted, with amendments, to reflect this oversight.

Near the beginning of subsection (c) in § 477K, added in Article 48A by Chapter 274, Acts of 1976, "notification requirement" should be "notification requirements"; now, therefore,
