

required pursuant to a regulation under this section, the Secretary may in such regulation prohibit the packaging of such substance in packages which he determines are unnecessarily attractive to children.

(a) For the purpose of making any household substance which is subject to a standard established under § [888] 889 readily available to elderly or handicapped persons unable to use the substance when packaged in compliance with the standard, the manufacturer or packer may package any household substance, subject to such a standard, in packaging of a single size of which does not comply with such standard if;

(1) The manufacturer (or packer) also supplies the substance in packages which comply with the standard; and

(2) The packages of the substance which do not meet the standard bear conspicuous labeling stating: "This Package for Households Without Young Children"; except that the Secretary may by regulation prescribe a substitute statement to the same effect for packaging too small to accommodate such labeling.

(a) Proceedings to issue, amend, or repeal a regulation prescribing a standard under § [888] 889 for the efficient enforcement of this subheading is hereby vested in the Secretary. The Secretary is hereby authorized to make the regulations promulgated under this subheading to conform insofar as practicable with those promulgated under the federal act.

SECTION 2. AND BE IT FURTHER ENACTED, That this Act shall take effect July 1, 1977.

Approved May 17, 1977.
