

that a crime has been committed or is about to be committed.

(2) There are reasonable grounds to believe that evidence will be obtained essential to the solution of a crime, or which may enable the prevention of a crime.

(3) There are no other means readily available for obtaining the information.

(b) Where statements are solely upon the information and belief of the applicant, the grounds for the belief must be given.

(c) The applicant must state whether any prior application has been made to obtain telephonic and telegraphic communications on the same instrument or for the same person and if a prior application exists the applicant shall disclose its current status.

(d) The application and any order issued under this section shall identify as fully as possible the particular telephone or telegraph line from which the information is to be obtained and the purpose.

(e) The court shall examine upon oath or affirmation the applicant and any witness the applicant desires to produce or the court requires to be produced.

(f) No order issued under this section shall be effective for longer than 30 days.

(g) Upon application of the officer who secured the original order, the court which issued the order may renew or continue the order for an additional period not to exceed 30 days.]

[10-404.

An officer who knowingly proceeds under an order which has expired and has not been renewed acts without authority and is subject to the penalties provided in this subtitle or in § 585 of Article 27 of this Code as though he had never obtained an order.]

[10-405.

The application for an order and supporting documents and testimony in connection with it are not public records and shall remain confidential in the custody of the court. These materials may not be released or information concerning them in any manner disclosed except upon written order of the court.]

[10-406.

Only evidence obtained in conformity with the