

3-804.

(d) The court does not have jurisdiction over:

(2) A child 16 years old or older alleged to have done an act in violation of any provision of the [State] MARYLAND Vehicle Law or any other traffic law or ordinance, except when the charge is manslaughter by automobile, possession of a stolen motor vehicle, tampering with a motor vehicle, or driving while INTOXICATED, WHILE impaired, or WHILE under the influence of [alcohol or] drugs OR DRUGS AND ALCOHOL;

(e) If the child is charged with two or more violations of the [State] MARYLAND Vehicle Law, another traffic law or ordinance, or the State Boat Act, allegedly arising out of the same incident and which would result in the child being brought before both the court and a court exercising criminal jurisdiction, the court has exclusive jurisdiction over all of the charges.

(a) An adjudication of a child pursuant to this subtitle is not criminal conviction for any purpose and does not impose any of the civil disabilities ordinarily imposed by a criminal conviction. However, an adjudication of a child as delinquent by reason of his violation of the State Vehicle Laws shall, upon order of the court, be reported by the clerk of the court to the Motor Vehicle Administration, who may assess points against the child [pursuant to article 66 1/2, § 6-402] UNDER TITLE 16, SUBTITLE 4 OF THE TRANSPORTATION ARTICLE, in the same manner and to the same effect as if the child had been convicted of the offense.
