Summer Scholastic Employment Act

FOR the purpose of changing the base period of the Summer Scholastic Employment Act; correcting a certain inconsistency in the qualifications of students eligible under this Act; allowing certain facilities of employers to be considered as separate employers for purposes of the Act; clarifying a condition of the rebate received by employers regarding students' substitution for permanent employees on vacation; prohibiting students employed under the Act from filing for unemployment compensation; requiring the Department of Human Resources to compile certain reports and statistics; requiring that Department to get the date for filing applications required in the Act; and requiring employers to hire, for purposes of the Act, only those students referred to them by the Department.
