

WORKSHOPS AND WHO EARN LESS THAN THE CURRENT MINIMUM WAGE, AS DETERMINED BY THE FEDERAL WAGE AND HOURS BOARD, TO TRAVEL FREE TO AND FROM THOSE WORKSHOPS.

REVISOR'S NOTE: Subsections (a) and (c) of this section are new language derived from the first and last sentences, respectively, of Art. 64B, §18(a). Subsection (b) of this section is new language that combines the provisions of the second sentence of Art. 64B, §18(a) and Art. 64B, §31. Subsection (d) of this section presently appears as Art. 64B, §§8(i) and 31B.

Art. 64B, §18 -which related, for the most part, to revenue bond financing by the former Mass Transit Authority - was repealed in its entirety by Ch. 608, Acts of 1976, as generally obsolete (in this regard, see discussion below on subsection (b) of this section and, also, General Revisor's Note to Title 3 of this article). However, some of the provisions of §18(a) have current validity, and therefore, have been readopted as revised and incorporated in this section.

Throughout this section, the term "fares" is added to conform to the like references elsewhere in this title; see, e.g., §7-208 of this title.

In subsection (a) of this section, the present reference to "partnership, association, or corporation" is deleted as unnecessary in light of the definition of "person" in §1-101 of this article.

In subsection (b) of this section, the present reference to revenue bonds and sinking and reserve funds are deleted as obsolete. The Administration has never issued revenue bonds and no longer has this authority, which, by former Art. 94A, §3--now, Section 1 of Ch. 608, Acts of 1976--is vested in the Maryland Transportation Authority. Furthermore, the Administration may not retain revenues in any reserve since all revenues are credited to the Transportation Trust Fund; in this regard, see §3-216 of this article. For provisions similar to those deleted, relating to charges set by the Maryland Transportation Authority, see §3-413 of this article.

The only other changes are in style.

As to the exercise of the powers and duties contained in this section, see §7-203(b) of this title.
