HUNGER

We have been the recipients of the choicest bounties of heaven. We have grown in wealth...and numbers as no other nation has grown. But we have forgotten God.	To set a pattern for unselfish living that can break the bottlenecks of waste, greed and graft which rob the hungry in a world of plenty.

FAMILY

I have always thought it of very great importance that children should, in the early part of life, be unaccustomed to such examples as would tend to corrupt the purity of their words and actions.	To uphold the sanctity of marriage, and to ease family life on honesty, undemanding care and goals beyond self-fulfillment and material success.

VIOLENCE

No man can make me stoop so low as to hate him.	To cure the hate that spawns violence by our caring and compassion.
